

The Meridian

Jury comments: Great use of a combination of brick stone and wood, giving each their respective place in a successful design solution and execution. Interesting curved masonry walls displaying to the world an exciting façade. Great color balance and rendition.